

Wilderness Manor takes top award

06:00 (GMT+2), Thu, 24 January 2013

The owners of Wilderness Manor, JD Janse van Rensburg and Gerald Hoch. Photo: Christo Vermaak

GEORGE BUSINESS NEWS - Wilderness Manor did the Southern Cape proud when they won a prestigious TripAdvisor Award.

This beautiful luxurious four star guesthouse is number 12 in the top 25 South African B&Bs and inns as rated by actual tourists who have frequented these venues.

They also took first place on TripAdvisor's list of places to stay in Wilderness. The Western Cape walked off with 21 of the 25 TripAdvisor Awards, with 9 going to Cape Town.

The owners of Wilderness Manor, Gerald Hoch and JD Janse van Rensburg said their 26 years experience as SAA crew members helped them to understand the tourism industry.

"Hard work and dedication have paid off and we are proud of our achievement," Hoch said.

TripAdvisor rates Wilderness Manor as the best B&B/Inn in Wilderness and as 12th best in the country.